

SUPER CHARGED~NITRO INJECTED~TEXAS SPEEDROCK

RIYL: Zeke, Speedealer, Motorhead, The Hookers, Nashville Pussy, Peter Pan Speedrock, Supersuckers, Punk and Hard Rock.

"These guys are the kind of punk/rock/metal Texas is all about, fast, loud and hard. The kind of shit you want to drink, drive fast and fuck too. I don't know about you, or maybe I do, but that's my kinda rock." Donny Paycheck -ZEKE

"HIT & RUN who's mix of Motorhead, Black Flag, Roller and Speedealer inspired music will make you feel like you just got ran over by an 18 wheeler on some 110 degree desolate Texas interstate. When you peel yourself up from that blood soaked melting asphalt you will want it to come back and hit you again." Travis Kenney-Hammerlock

It's not often that a band comes along with enough power and the ability of laying to waste all who stand in front of them. HIT & RUN does this nicely. You ever have the feeling of standing there at the end of the show, all alone, abandoned by everyone around you out of fear, picking up your own guts? No? Go see HIT & RUN and you will understand the feeling. On stage.....the first note rings out.....and they take you by the throat and do not let up until they ring out the last note of their set list. At 10,000 rpm, HIT & RUN hits rock & roll's red line. Fast enough to make a methhead flinch, with driving guitars that delivers a punch at decibels on par with Motorhead in a closet. The drummer and bassist put together a rhythm section that should be charged with assault. This is speedrock delivered at it's maximum potential.

HIT & RUN blasted on to the scene in Texas, early in 2006 and have not shown a sign of slowing down, or rather backing down yet. Lit Monthly said it best in a 2008 review: "Hit & Run barely has time to bother, as they beat and blast relentlessly forward". There is nothing weak about these guys. With their own brand of Punk/Speed Rock, they can hold their own with the titans of the genre.

HIT & RUN have shared the stage with the likes of Hammerlock, Honky, Eddie Spaghetti of The Supersuckers, Agnostic Front, The Murder Junkies, The Accused and D.R.I. to name a few.

4 SONG'ER EP 2007

7" Split 2008

Upcoming full length April 2010

HITNRUNTX.COM

MYSFACE.COM/HITRUNDALLAS

Jeremy: Guitar and vocals~Mark: Bass and backing vocals~Scott: Drums and backing vocals

©Roadkiller Records